

Sample Facilitation Scenario

Candidate Instructions

Candidate Instructions: You have twenty minutes to read your scenario, plan, organize and prepare a 5 minute segment of a workshop. Some resources have been provided.

Topic: Personal Accountability: “It’s Not You. It’s Me.”

Scenario	You have been asked to facilitate a workshop about personal accountability with a group of chapter officers at Chapter Officer Leadership Training. Being elected to serve as an officer is a great honor that comes with even greater responsibility. Your task is to bring awareness to the responsibility needed to be a chapter officer and tools for staying personally accountable for their actions through an engaging activity you create and deliver.
Preparation	Review the following cornerstones that are used in workshop development: Objective: A statement that identifies the student learning outcome. This statement is meant to guide the facilitator only. Support: The activity that helps students experience the content or topic in an engaging way. Point: A statement that helps students find relevancy in the content or topic to their lives. This statement expresses the same outcome as what is found in the objective, only rephrased. It is intended to be shared with students. Application: The method by which students apply what was learned.
Assignment	Review the section “Workshop Content” below. You will need to create the support that bridges the point to the application. The point and application are provided for you; these two items MUST also appear in the delivery of this content. Be prepared to facilitate this segment at the end of your preparation time.
Workshop Content	Objective: Recognize tools needed to be personally accountable. Support: Create an activity that meets the objectives and is both appropriate and engaging for the audience. Point: Using these tools to be personally accountable is important for our personal success. Application: Students will reflect on the tools they intend to use to be personally accountable.
